The Book Fair

Last week our school had a Book Fair in the hall. Every class visited the fair with their English teacher. Pupils could buy books, and every pupil who read a book at home wrote the title of the book on a card.

On Friday the teachers counted the cards. Class 1A read 24 books. Class 1B read 18 books. Class 2A read 30 books. Class 2B read 20 books. The table below shows the number of books each class read.

Class 2A read the most books. Class 1B read the fewest. Miss Ho, the English panel head, said, "This is not a competition. The important thing is that you enjoy reading."

The pupils in 2A will visit the public library next month. Miss Ho will go with them.

Books read by each class in Book Fair week

Class	1A	1B	2A	2B
Books read	24	18	30	20

B1. Are the sentences true or false? If a sentence is false, write the correct information. (12 marks)

The Book Fair was in the school hall.

Class 1A read the most books.

Class 2B read 20 books.

Miss Ho said the class that read the most books would get a prize.

B2. Answer the questions. Show your working where a calculation is needed. (16 marks)

How many books did Class 1B read?

How many books did the four classes read altogether?

What is the average number of books per class?

How many more books did Class 2A read than Class 1B?

B3. Find a word in the passage that means the same as the words below. (6 marks)

a large room where many people can meet or buy things something you get because you have done well

B4. Answer in two or three sentences. (6 marks)

Which class do you think enjoyed the Book Fair most? Give one reason.

Section C — Writing (30 marks)

Write about 40 words about your favourite day at school. Write five sentences. Say which day it is, what you do on that day and why you like it.
