The Book Fair

Last week our school had a Book Fair in the hall. Every class visited the fair with their English teacher. Pupils could buy books, and every pupil who read a book at home wrote the title of the book on a card.

On Friday the teachers counted the cards. Class 1A read 24 books. Class 1B read 18 books. Class 2A read 30 books. Class 2B read 20 books. The table below shows the number of books each class read.

Class 2A read the most books. Class 1B read the fewest. Miss Ho, the English panel head, said, "This is not a competition. The important thing is that you enjoy reading."

The pupils in 2A will visit the public library next month. Miss Ho will go with them.
